PLACE
Brooklyn, 1950

There will be a fifteen minute intermission between Act I and Act II.

Crumbs from the Table of Joy is presented by Special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.

Tiffany Holmes (Ernestine Crump) is a teacher at the Academic Learning Center and a full time doctoral student. She has been in several productions at SLT. She is honored to work with such a talented cast and would like to dedicate this show to her father, the late Willie Holmes. She knows he would be proud. Victory and virtue!

Brianna Gray (Ermina Crump) is a student at Mayewood Middle and is a student in the SLT middle school acting classes and she last appeared in A Christmas Carol. When she reaches high school, she plans to audition for the South Carolina Governor’s School of Arts and Humanities because she aspires to become an actress, playwright and director.

Gregory A White (Godfrey Crump) is returning to the stage after his last performance as Harold Loomis in Joe Turner’s Come and Gone. His first show with SLT was August Wilson’s Jitney where he played Shealy. He enjoyed working with this wonderful cast and crew to help bring Crumbs from the Table of Joy to life.

Gwynette Taylor Waters (Lily Ann Green) has been a Sumter resident since the age of five, graduat ing from Sumter High and Lander College. At Lander she experienced live theatre for the first time when she played Beneatha Younger in A Raisin in the Sun. She is very thankful for the support and patience of her husband, Carlos; children, Taylor and CJ; brother Greg; and parents, William and Daphne Taylor. She also thanks her extended family of cousins, aunts, and friends. Being away from the stage for over 20 years she feels “Thank you” fails to express the gratitude to Eric Bultman and the cast whose guidance and incredible talents helped her bring Lily’s spirit to life.

Kathleen Roy (Gerte Crump) has been an Assistant Professor of Theatre and Speech at Morris College for 8 years where she has directed many plays. Her favorites are The Amen Corner and A Raisin in the Sun. This is her 3rd play at SLT and her most recent was Sylvia, also directed by Eric Bultman. She is thrilled to have the opportunity to work with him again. She would like to thank her husband Toby Roberson for his love and support.
